

Hospice volunteers are needed

We are looking for volunteers to provide support to our patients. A variety of volunteer opportunities are available, including visiting patients, providing support to families, facilitating groups, performing administrative duties, and more.

Current areas of high demand are:

- Massage therapists
- Bilingual volunteers
- Bereavement volunteers

For more information about volunteering, please call Hospice Support Services at (831) 649-7755.

Training begins September 13.
Deadline for application is August 30.

Hospice of the Central Coast helps families embrace the life they have left with comfort, dignity, and compassion.
